GHANA BAR ASSOCIATION'S CONGRATULATORY MESSAGE ON THE SUCCESSFUL CONDUCT OF THE 2024 GENERAL ELECTIONS

On Saturday, 7th December, 2024, Ghana spoke audibly during our Presidential and Parliamentary elections.

The Ghana Bar Association (the GBA) extends its warm congratulations to the people of Ghana on the successful and generally peaceful conduct of our elections. The events during and after the voting processes are a testament to the maturity and resilience of our growing and highly-guarded democracy.

The GBA commends the Electoral Commission, the Diplomatic Community, security agencies, polling station agents and all stakeholders, including election observers, both domestic and international, who worked tirelessly to ensure the integrity and transparency of the electoral process.

The GBA applauds all citizens who dutifully exercised their franchise. The GBA applauds and appreciates your exceptional enthusiasm and commitment to shaping the future of our beloved country. The GBA extends its profound congratulations to all candidates who participated in the just-ended Presidential and Parliamentary elections, especially to His Excellency Dr Mahamudu Bawumia who proffered a timeous concession.

The GBA also expresses its heartfelt congratulations to the President-Elect, His Excellency John Dramani Mahama, on his victory. Indeed, the good people of Ghana have overwhelmingly spoken in his favour. The GBA is hopeful that the President-Elect will continue to champion the growth of the democratic tenets the people of Ghana so cherish.

The GBA unreservedly condemns reports of pockets of violent attacks, including gunshots, which resulted in the unwarranted deaths of some persons and extends its condolences to the bereaved families.

Mrs. Victoria Barth - National Vice President
Saviour Kudze - National Treasurer
Saviour Kudze - Nat. P.R.O.

Yaw Acheampong Bofo - Imm. Past President
Aurelius Awuku - Nat. Asst. Secretary
Lawrencia Adika - Nat. Asst. P.R.O.

The GBA urges all Ghanaians to maintain and guard jealously the unity, tolerance and peaceful coexistence that have been the hallmark of the good people of Ghana, even as we express our differing views and opinions.

The GBA makes a passionate appeal for an immediate end to all forms of lawlessness, including allegations of the destruction of properties and attempts at taking over offices.

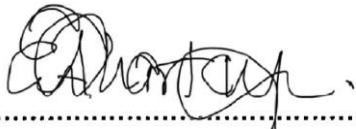

The GBA calls upon security and law enforcement agencies to handle with dispatch all cases of infringement brought to their attention.

May Ghana continue to be the bastion of democracy within Africa and beyond, and may our nation become greater and stronger.

Long live the Ghana Bar Association.

Long live Ghana.

DATED IN ACCRA THIS 11TH DAY OF DECEMBER, 2024
